

Penn State Dickinson School of Law

University Park, Pennsylvania

Completion: 2009

Budget: $48M

Client: Polshek Partnership Architects

Role: Associate Architect

234 Liberty Street

Harrisburg, PA 17101

717.230.9660

Fax 717.230.9664

www.oparchitecture.com

Recently completed, this new 110,000 square-foot facility comprises the University Park Campus of the Dickinson School of Law at the Pennsylvania State University. The building houses a state-of-the-art law library, auditorium, lecture halls, classrooms, seminar rooms, study areas, cafe/dining area, and faculty offices. Designed to LEED standards, the structure employs local and recycled materials, energy conservation strategies, natural lighting, and a green roof.